Lesson 1: Salvation

Salvation ... An explanation

Definition: Salvation is God's deliverance of man from the power and consequences of sin through the work of Christ on the cross.

Before you were saved, your sin separated you from God. You were alienated from Him ... spiritually dead in your sins ... and headed for an eternity without God. However, He has provided a solution to this problem. He offers that solution to you as a free gift. That gift, offered in love, is eternal life. This gift is free to you ... but it was not free for Jesus. He had to pay for your sins by His death on the cross. No gift has ever been more costly. He took your sins onto Himself. He took your place. He did that so you might die to sin (stop living for sin) and live for righteousness. Because of His love, God sent Jesus to die on the cross.

There is nothing you can do to pay for your own salvation ... the cost is too high. The only solution is to accept God's free gift. The Bible states that the way to accept that gift is by believing in Jesus. By believing in Jesus you are saved ... you will never perish ... you have eternal life.

Wonderful changes take place at the moment you receive Jesus as your personal Savior. You become a child of God. In addition, you have God's promise that you will never perish. You are born again to a living hope, guaranteed by the resurrection of Jesus. Because He conquered death, you will live even if you die. Sin was paid for in full by the blood of Jesus. When you believe in Jesus, His payment is applied to your sins. Then you receive forgiveness of sins. With your sins forgiven, you are no longer separated from God. He gives you the free gift of eternal life ... an eternal relationship with Him.

11. A personal question: Are you completely sure about your relationship with God? If you have any doubt that you have settled this issue once for all eternity, please continue to the next page.

Salvation ... Are you sure?

This is of utmost importance. You need to be sure that you have taken your step of faith. By putting your faith in Jesus, you become God's child. As His child, you are eternally secure. However, the Bible includes a challenge for you in 2 Corinthians 13:5: "Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves!" God gives you an internal confirmation when you are born again, 1 John 5:7-13. His Spirit authenticates that fact in your heart. Why not examine yourself right now? Do you have that internal confirmation? Are you sure that you have truly invited Jesus to be your Savior? If you would like to be sure that Christ is yours, this would be a good time to settle it once and for all. Invite Him to be your Savior right now. The prayer that follows is a good way to do that. Pray it now if it expresses the sincere desire of your heart.

Dear God,

I admit that I am a sinner.

I turn to You from my sin.

I believe that Jesus, being God, died on the cross for me. I invite Him to be my Savior.

Thank You for saving me.

Amen

Lesson 2: Eternal Security

Eternal Security ... An explanation

Definition: Eternal Security is the fact that, after being born again, you are safe with God forever ... you cannot lose your salvation.

The Bible states that you can know that you have eternal life. Many verses clearly state this fact. Never doubt it. To doubt your eternal security is to doubt the truth of God's word.

Your good works did not save you and will not keep you saved. In addition, your efforts not to do bad works will not keep you saved. You are saved only by God's grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Your salvation is based exclusively on the work of Jesus. It is His work ... plus nothing. Your good works did not and do not save you.

The Bible promises eternal security. Jesus has promised never to cast you out. You can trust Him. All that come to Jesus will be saved ... and none of them will ever be lost. God's promise is that, when you believe in Him, you have eternal life. It is your present possession. He also promised that you will not come into judgment ... and that you have passed out of death into life.

Your eternal security is based solely on God's strength. It is not based on your strength. You will never perish because you are safe in the Father's hand. You are not holding on to Him. He is holding on to you. That realization is very comforting. No one is stronger than God is; therefore, no one, not even you, can ever snatch you out of the Father's hand. You are safe forever.

Nothing and no one can ever separate you from God's love in Christ Jesus. Once you have been born again, no circumstance or event can separate you from His love ... not even death. No person or being can separate you from His love ... not even you. This is His promise to you.

Question: What are some of the things that ... and who are some of the people who ... cannot separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus?

Lesson 3: Prayer

Prayer ... An explanation

Definition: Prayer is talking to God and includes ... offering praise to Him for who He is ... thanking Him for what He has done ... confessing sins ... and making requests to Him.

Prayer is the special privilege that you have to talk to God. The Psalmist wrote, "Let everyone who is godly pray." Psalm 32:6.

The Bible includes many prayer promises. However, these are also prayer conditions. Meet God's conditions ... and He will answer your prayers. God is not looking for some magical combination of your words and phrases. He is looking for your righteousness and your obedience. Abiding in Jesus Christ is the first condition for effective prayer. You must dwell in Christ. You must be rooted in Him and draw your strength from Him. And His words, the Bible, must abide in you. Then, as your will conforms to God's will, you can pray with confidence.

God is receptive to the prayers of the righteous. However, He turns away from those who do evil. Therefore, your prayers are more effective when you are pleasing to God ... when you obey Him ... and when you bear fruit (that is, help someone find Christ). A husband's prayers are more effective when he treats his wife with honor and understanding. Praying in unity with other believers is also very important. You should pray in faith, believing that God will answer. Jesus taught that prayer should be directed to the Father. In addition, prayer should be in the name of Jesus ... that is, in unity with Him.

Your prayers are more effective if you meet all of God's conditions. God always keeps His promises. He will answer your prayers. Then your joy will be made full. He wants you to talk to Him. God wants you to pray.

9. "I say to you, if you shall ask the Father for anything, He will give it to you in My name. Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full." John 16:23-24

Question: To whom should you pray?

Question: What happens to you when God answers your prayers?

A reminder: These are prayer promises and prayer conditions. God always keeps His promises. It is up to you to meet the conditions for answered prayer.

A Pattern for Prayer

God wants you to talk to Him. Be devoted to prayer, Colossians 4:2. Be open and honest with God. Do not pray with hypocrisy and meaningless repetition, Matthew 6:5-8. The Biblical pattern for prayer includes the following four elements:

PRAISE expresses your admiration and exaltation of God. Your praise honors and glorifies God for who He is, Psalm 34:1-3. Continually offer up your praise to Him, Hebrews 13:15.

THANKS expresses your appreciation to God for what He has done. Thank Him, Psalm 107:1. Have an attitude of thanksgiving, Colossians 4:2. Give thanks in everything, 1 Thessalonians 5:18, Ephesians 5:20.

CONFESSION is the acknowledgment of your sins and the wrongness of your sins to God. "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9. Note: 1 John 1:9 is a good verse to memorize.

REQUESTS are the things you ask God to do for you and for others. God invites you to make your requests known to Him, Philippians 4:6. Ask with the right motives, James 4:2-3. And trust God's answers, Matthew 7:7-11.

These four elements (praise, thanks, confession, and requests) should be in your prayer life. However, not all four have to be in every prayer.

Lesson 4: The Bible

The Bible ... An explanation

Definition: The Bible is the inspired, true, and authoritative word of God, consisting of the 66 books of the Old and New Testaments.

The Bible is the preeminent book. No other book is like the Bible. It is a book from God ... not simply a book about God. The Bible is much more than inspiring. It is inspired ... it is God-breathed. It is actually His word; therefore, it is different from all other books. God's word is pure. It is accurate and without error. His word does not need to be purified, refined, or filtered. In addition, the Bible is a source of great joy and understanding.

Jesus said that God's word is truth. God's word can sanctify you (that is, make you holy). Moreover, the Bible is not only true, it is also everlasting. It is not bound by time. It does not age. It does not become outdated. The Bible is relevant today just as it was when it was written. In addition, Jesus said that God's word can be trusted to the finest detail ... to the smallest letter or stroke of a letter. You can trust the Bible. It is God's true, everlasting word.

The Bible is powerful and practical. It provides great benefits. It enlightens you and gives you understanding. It gives you God's direction for your life ... for each step and for each path. The Bible and its promises revive you when you are afflicted. Treasuring His word in your heart helps you resist sin. The Bible is the only book that can give you all of these benefits.

It is very important that you learn God's word. You should read the Bible ... study it ... meditate on it ... and memorize it. However, it is not enough only to take in God's word. You must also obey it. The blessings and benefits come from hearing and obeying God's word. Jesus said, "If you abide in My word, then you are truly disciples of mine; and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free," John 8:31-32.

Bible study suggestions

Jesus said, "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God," Matthew 4:4. Those are good words for us. We should make Bible reading and Bible study an important part of every day. "Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately the word of truth," 2 Timothy 2:15.

It takes time to learn God's word ... so spend time in your Bible every day. It takes careful effort to learn to handle His word accurately. Therefore, be sure to put what you study in the correct, full context of its paragraph, chapter, and book. As you study, answer these three questions:

What does it say?

What does it mean?

How can I make this part of my life?

To answer this third question, use 2 Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work." Look for teaching ... for reproof ... for correction ... and for training in righteousness.

Be sure to study the Old and New Testaments. Start with some easier books like Mark, John, and Colossians. You might want to keep a study notebook ... it can be very helpful.
